INSTRUCTOR:
Prof. Matthew Brower

TEACHING ASSISTANTS:
Camille-Mary Sharp
Rebecca Noone

EXHIBITION CLASS CELEBRATION
Hart House, the Debates Room
April 12, 6:00-11:00pm
Remarks at 7:30pm
All are welcome

24 Graduating Exhibition Projects
Master of Museum Studies
University of Toronto

SPECIAL THANKS to the Faculty of Information, University of Toronto, Art Niemi and to all our partners and collaborators on the reverse who have made the projects possible
Exhibition Project Class 2017-18
24 Graduating Exhibition Projects of Museum Studies University of Toronto

01. Inclusive Collections Toolkit
Keesa Campbell
Salon/Date: March 27, 2018
Location: Art Gallery of Ontario

This is a research project exploring emerging practices in museum education. Through consultation and dialogue with museum professionals, this study will contextualize new inclusive strategies as we honed curatorial approaches to our collections.

Image credit: Art Gallery of Ontario Archive. Photo by Kevin Campbell

02. Toronto: The Views are Different Here
Wille Miron and Amanda Mehta
Exhibition Dates: March 26 - May 6, 2018
Location: Art Bar Gallery, 80 Bay Street (at Wellesley), McCain Building, Toronto, ON

This exhibition will re-examine the various views of Toronto through the eyes of a group of local artists, who will be working collaboratively in art making.

Image credit: Art Bar Gallery. Photo by Rona Stern

06. A Telephonic Book
Anita Carson, Megan Filan
Featured artists: Broadened Spheres
Exhibition Dates: May 30 - June 15, 2018
Opening Reception: Stephanie Bailey Gallery (136 St George St, Toronto, ON, Mon., 5pm - 9pm (reception at 6:00 pm)
Exhibition Duration: Black Cat Art Space (236 St. George St., Toronto, May 31 - Aug 18, 2018)

This project is an attempt to capture the ephemeral nature of telephone conversations and connections, and whether or not it might be something that we retain when we explore the memories of those conversations.

Image credit: Broadened Spheres & Jennifer Reynolds, 2017

10. Lost and Found: Reorienting Fragments of Old Toronto
Lanae碚, Harmel Leah, Taupel M Callahan
Exhibition Dates: Friday, March 23, 2018 - Thursday, April 5, 2018
Panel Discussion: Thursday March 29, 2018, 7 - 9pm
Opening Reception: Thursday, March 29, 2018, 7 - 9pm
Location: Campbell Library, 10 Queen West, Toronto.

Focusing on the loss of traditional craftsmanship, Pavan and Spencer Clark videogrape fragments from many of Toronto’s iconic buildings. For the first time in many years, these will be seen together at once, and an interlude of contemporary architecture will be refereed to the context of these fragments. This is a re-orientation of the city’s relationship to its heritage.

Image credit: Lena Boll

18. Redefining Language in African Art Scholarship
Samantha Eadie
Launch Date: Monday, April 30th, 2018
Location:イメージ: Images of Africa: African Art Scholarship

Scholarship is a digital exhibition which explores the history of language used to describe African art from co-ordinated to post-colonial periods. This exhibition explores the sociology, politics and contemporary re-orienting.

Collaborators: Dr. John E. Ackerman, Anne-Marie Collod, Babs Gombrich

19. Shelley Peterson Student Art Exhibition 2018
Erin Alfred-Feit, Katie Danzinger, Deanna Taylor
Exhibition Dates: May 2 - April 14, 2018
Location: University of Toronto Centre for the Arts (UTCA) 150 College Street, Toronto, ON

Exhibition Launch Date: May 2, 2018

Celebrating the work of undergraduate students, the annual student exhibition showcases the diverse range of contemporary art being created by our Art and Visual Culture students. The exhibition is an opportunity to celebrate the creativity of our students and their passion for the arts.

Image credit: Shelley Peterson Student Art Exhibition 2018

21. Davis McCall McCarty Symposium
Alexa Miron
Date: November 2018
Location: Davis McCall McCarty University of Toronto Scarborough, 1205 Military Parade, Toronto, ON

A symposium to feature a series of short papers on the subject of Toronto’s hidden communities. This will be an opportunity to explore the history and role of the city’s hidden communities.

Image credit: Davis McCall McCarty University of Toronto Scarborough. Photo by Ewan Bethune, 2017

22. Wood-Messengers: Making and Shaping Culture in Canada
Cassandra Curtis and Jake MacDonald
Launch Date: May 8, 2018
Location: Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library 170 George Street, Toronto, ON

An exhibition exploring the role of wood in shaping and defining the identity of Canada. This exhibition will showcase a selection of objects from various communities and cultures in Canada, exploring the ways in which wood has been used and transformed over time.

Image credit: Wood-Messengers: Making and Shaping Culture in Canada

23. 23. The History of The Lake Street Roundhouse: 1925 - Present
Location: 67 Guelph Street, Toronto, ON

Date: Opening: May 18, 2018

This exhibition explores the history of the Lake Street Roundhouse, a historic train station in Toronto, from its construction in 1925 to its current use as a-museum. The exhibition features a series of interactive displays and multimedia exhibits that highlight the history and evolution of the roundhouse over the past century.

Image credit: Courtesy of Toronto Public Library

24. Case Study: A History of Physics reopened at University of Toronto
Eoin MacBain and David Ross
Location: Davis McCall McCarty University of Toronto Scarborough, 1205 Military Parade, Toronto, ON

Date: Wednesday, November 4, 2018

This exhibition is an exploration of the history of physics at the University of Toronto, from its inception in 1925 to the present day. It features a series of panel discussions, lectures, and interactive exhibits that showcase the developments and achievements of the department over the past century.

Image credit: Courtesy of University of Toronto Physics

In conjunction with the University of Toronto, students from the Imperial College of the University of Toronto will be presenting this exhibition, which is part of the larger world exhibition on the history of physics at the University of Toronto.